New Pastor To Speak To Club

REV. EDWIN A. SHOEMAKER

Rev. Edwin A. Shoemaker, new pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church, Mt. Jackson-Enon Valley road, comes to New Castle tomorrow to make an address before the Kiwanis Club at its luncheon at the Castleton.

It will be his first appearance here since having assumed the Westfield charge a short time ago. He was recently graduated from the Presbyterian Seminary at Pittsburgh and accepted the Westfield call.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Motorists entering New Castle are still amused at the firm and prominent new signs which read "End of City Limit." There is one of the signs at every entrance to the city, whoever erected them had a rather vague idea of what a city limit is.

As Independence Day nears the nights get noisier and noisier. The firecracker stands outside the city must be having a "booming" business.

The first ripe tomato reported? That, at least, is the claim Ben Campbell, 29 North Lee avenue, makes for the ripe tomato he picked in his garden on Saturday, June 29.

Ellwood City will very shortly have a new postmaster. The U. S. Senate has confirmed the appointment of Thomas A. Wilson, and little remains in the way of the new postmaster taking over the office.

W. S. Butler of 923 Croton avenue is observing his eightieth birthday today. Just a week ago, his brother-in-law, Joe Bowman, of Parker's Landing, celebrated his 100th, and Mr. Butler hopes to achieve the same distinction.

The tar which has been placed on the streets to fill the cracks between the bricks proves to be rather sticky to people stepping on it during these hot days.

Improvements are being made in the alley directly behind the Y. M. C. A. It was noticed this morning.

The highway department maintenance crews are now working on East Brook street and are making some needed repairs.

A bird perched on top of the flagpole on the Diamond attracted considerable attention from pedestrians last night.

One of the lamp posts on West Washington street in front of the Shenango Motors was struck yesterday and the shade and top toppled to the ground and broke.

President Faces New Difficulties Over His Program

Defeat On Holding Company "Death Sentence" May Affect Other Bills

"MUST" PROGRAM TO OCCASION CLASHES

Reveal Tremendous Effort Made To Force Democrats In Line On Utilities Issue

By WILLIAM S. NEAL

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Fresh difficulties with congress were foreseen for President Roosevelt today in the wake of his crushing defeat in the house on the holding company "Death Sentence" issue.

Serious clashes, in which White House influence may be further tested, threatened the drive of leaders to put through the "must" legislative program. Political leaders disagreed upon the effect of the house revolt on the utility issue.

The Democratic leaders insisted that congress still is loyal to Mr. Roosevelt's New Deal program, but the Republicans gleefully declared that "members are beginning to think for themselves."

New Battles Loom
The house will battle next week over the TVA amendments, with a split in Democratic ranks certain. Foes of expansion of the TVA are certain they will win despite White House pressure to reinstate the senate bill.

The holding company vote was the second big defeat suffered by Mr. Roosevelt in the house this session. The house on May 22, after hearing the president's veto message on the bonus, passed the Patman bill over his veto, 322 to 98. The senate, however, sustained the president.

The biggest defeat suffered by Mr. Roosevelt in the senate was on the World Court issue, when his personal pleadings failed to produce a two-thirds vote.

The senate also revolted against the administration's program on the $4,880,000,000 Works-Relief bill

'Death Sentence' Again Rejected

House Increases Vote Against Holding Companies' Death Decree

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 2.—The house today defeated the administration's second attempt to obtain approval of the drastic holding company "death sentence."

The vote by tellers was 133 for sustaining the senate bill and 246 against. The house yesterday rejected the death sentence clause by a vote of 216 to 146.

Sitting as committee of the whole which barred a record vote, the house refused to substitute the senate bill providing for dissolution of giant utility groups for the modified house measure.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—Representative Charles R. Eckert of Beaver was one of the few Pennsylvania Democrats in the house who stood by President Roosevelt on Monday when the house by a 216 to 146 ballot rejected the mandatory death sentence for holding companies.

Supporting Roosevelt's demand for the penalty, Mr. Eckert voted for it, but most Pennsylvania Democrats and all state Republicans joined the rebellion which brought defeat to the president.

Huge Waiting List For State Pensions

HARRISBURG, July 2.—Less than a year old the state's old age and blind pension systems already have overflowed the bounds of available cash and are building up high waiting lists of persons eligible to receive aid for whom there is no money.

Figures released today by the department of welfare showed both systems have joined the category of the state's mothers' assistance system which has been accumulating an ever-increasing waiting list for several years.

Money Not Available
The departmental figures disclosed:

That there already is a waiting list of 5,107 cases eligible for old age pensions for which no money is available and that applications now being investigated probably will

MAKES THREAT TO RECALL DANIELS

Representative Fish Blocked In Attempts To Secure Correspondence Letters

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 2.—A threat to introduce a resolution for recall of Joseph Daniels, American ambassador to Mexico, was made today by Rep. Fish (R) of New York, as he was blocked in an effort to peruse letters of Secretary of State Hull and Daniels on the Mexican religious question.

At a session of the house foreign affairs committee, Fish won a promise that the letters would be turned over to him.

The committee had before it a resolution by Rep. Citron (D), Connecticut, calling upon the state department for information as to treatment of Americans in Mexico, particularly whether or not they have been denied religious freedom.

Hull's letter, which was not made public, was reported to follow his previous declaration that it would be unwise for the United States to interfere in the Mexican situation.

Republicans To Go To Cleveland

Lawrence County Delegation To Attend "Grass Roots" Convention

SIX STATES WILL SHARE CONFERENCE

Lawrence county will be represented in the "Grass Roots" convention to be held in Cleveland, Monday and Tuesday, July 8 and 9. Delegates from this county were announced today and in addition to the delegates it is expected that a representative group of Republicans will attend some of the sessions as guests.

The names of those who will represent the county as delegates follows: Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard, Attorney John G. Laworee, James W. Moorhead, W. W. Duff, Bart Richards, Alderman James C. Elice, W. Leslie Brindle, Attorney Charles Ross, James A. Rugh, Ivor V. Davis and Filmore Campbell of New Wilmington.

The "Grass Roots" convention will attract Republicans from six states, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee. The purpose of the convention is to reunite the party and to lay grounds for a workable platform which can be adopted at the national convention to be held in June 1936.

Similar conventions have been held in the west and have proven to be a rejuvenating influence upon the party. With the important states represented in the convention that are named above it is expected that the Cleveland convention will have some far reaching consequences.

Grover C. Talbot of Delaware county has been named as the parliamentarian of the convention. The state chairman for Pennsylvania is George Piddington, with Charles W. Carroll of Philadelphia as secretary.

Confessed Murderer Of Small Girl Hopes "Mob Strings Him Up"

(International News Service)
GREENVILLE, N. Y., July 2.—Alfred Volkman, 19-year-old butcher boy who confessed to murdering nine-year-old Helen Glenn, today expressed the hope that "the mob will string me up."

Taken from the Catskill hospital where he has been recovering from an attempt to end his own life with poison, young Volkman was brought here and arraigned. Only a few persons were on the streets of this little mountain village when the youth, under heavy state guard, was brought here.

When the gravity of a first degree murder charge was explained by District Attorney John C. Welsh, tears streamed down the youth's face and he said:

Pleads Guilty.

Roll Call Vote Taken On Utility Bill In House

Vote Is 257 For House Bill And 147 For Senate Measure

RAYBURN CREATES
STIR IN HOUSE

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 2.—Reaffirming its previous votes, the House today defeated on a roll call the administration's third and final move to obtain approval of the holding company death sentence.

The vote was 257 for the House bill and 147 for the Senate bill, which contained the death sentence clause.

Two previous votes were not recorded but were taken by tellers in committee of the whole.

Backers of the "death sentence" had believed the House would be afraid to oppose the President on a roll call vote, where names are registered.

The House bill calls for simplification of large holding company structures into integrated utility companies.

Compromise On Banking Measure Is Now Foreseen

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Speedy and favorable senate action on the compromise banking legislation was assured today as the leaders planned to rush the measure through the senate banking committee.

After senate passages will come the real battle, a battle with the house, which passed the legislation. It was in the autonomous form presented by Governor Martin S. Eells of the federal reserve board, placing the nation's credit control strictly in the hands of the federal reserve board. Senator Carter Glass (D) of Virginia, fought successfully to drastically modify this draft in the senate banking committee.

In the form virtually approved by the senate banking committee, the legislation represented a far step in the way of concessions to Glass.

DETROIT, July 2.—A young Detroit hoodlum and three hysterical girls, products of the borderland of the city's underworld, faced the limit of Michigan law today, for the murder of Howard Carter Dickinson, distinguished New York lawyer and nephew of Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes of the United States Supreme Court.

It is expected that Prosecutor Duncan McCreary would seek warrants against William Schweitzer, alias, Fern, 26, petty crook and racketeer; Florence Jackson, 24, her sister, Loretta, 27, the mother of two small children, and Jean Miller, 23.

Schweitzer Cracks
Schweitzer cracked under two days of incessant grilling last night and confessed that he and the three girls lured Dickinson to lonely Rouge Park last Thursday morning and shot him to death for the $134 in cash he carried.

Schweitzer summed up the case in his own words: "That's a hell of a small amount of money to kill a guy for!"

His confession, as outlined to newspapermen by McCreary, said the killing of Dickinson was a premeditated murder for robbery—that he and at least two of the girls planned to shoot Dickinson without giving him a chance for his life.

Schweitzer told him how he and Goodrich is sought for the murder of 11-year-old Lillian Gallagher. Schweitzer claims to know where Goodrich is. Chief Frahm refused to say whether he placed credence in the story.

JURY IS OUT FOR 71 HOURS

Five In Bruno Case Are Freed

Only One Of Six On Trial Convicted After Long Deliberation

PROSECUTOR SAYS VERDICT UNJUST

(International News Service)
POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 2.—A jury which sought divine guidance in prayer and hymns today had acquitted five of the six co-defendants on trial on murder charges growing out of the Kelyares election eye massacre.

The sixth, Philip Bruno, 47, a brother of Joseph J. Bruno, former Kline township political leader who has been convicted in two previous trials, was found guilty on four counts of manslaughter after 71 hours of deliberation. The jury recommended mercy.

Verdict Assailed
The verdict was termed a "disgraceful miscarriage of justice" by special prosecutor Albert L. Thomas. Sentences on Philip Bruno, who faces a maximum of 6 to 12 years on each count, was deferred pending arguments on a motion for a new trial.

Those acquitted were: Joseph Bruno's sons, Alfred, 26, and James, 30; Philip Bruno's son, Arthur, 18; Paul Bruno, 23, a nephew of Philip, and Anthony Orlando, 27, a son-in-law of Joseph.

They were specifically charged with killing Deonick Perna, John Galosky, Frank Fiorella and Andrew Kostishian, four of the five men who died when gunfire raked a Democratic parade as it passed the home of Joseph Bruno, against whom manslaughter and second degree murder convictions have been returned. All still face trial for the death of Frank Forke, the fifth victim.

Friends and relatives of the men crowded around them in court and embraced them after the verdict was returned.

boost this list to nearly 50,000—160 per cent of the number of cases actually receiving pensions.

That more than 40 per cent of the widowed mothers in the state eligible to receive financial assistance are on the waiting list which is expected to grow from 13,587 cases now to 16,500 during the next two years.

And that the peak load of cases eligible to receive blind pensions has been reached with more cases still being studied which will require inauguration of waiting lists this year.

Appropriations for the three services during the current biennium total $23,000,000 in Gov. George H. Earle's budget.

Bills passed by the legislature provided $44,000,000 because Rep. Darlington Hoopes, Berks socialist, won approval of his amendment doubling the outlay for old age assistance. Governor Earle was expected to halve the amount when he signs the appropriation bill because the legislature provided no cash to meet the increased allocation.

New Problem Develops
Departmental figures indicate that to provide cash for all eligible cases in the three systems, approximately $68,000,000 would be needed for the biennium. The problem of providing at least part of this needed additional amount seems likely to come before the next legislative session.

The department said that during the first year since establishment of the old age pension system, a total of 113,227 applications have been received. Of these 32,751 have been monthly checks which exhaust the amount of money available. A total of 14,216 other applications has been rejected, leaving 5,107 applicants approved and placed on waiting lists and 61,173 applicant's still being investigated.

Of the 9,600 blind persons in Pennsylvania, a total of 4,194 at present have been placed on pension lists, the peak load, with funds available. Additional applications still are under investigation.

The Mother's Assistance system, which has been in operation nearly a decade, now has 8,245 widowed mothers receiving aid, just 41 per cent of those eligible last year. Estimates are that 16,500 families are eligible for help during the current biennium.

Tiny Dog Knows Now Its Best Not To "Wuf! Wuf!" In Every Rabbit's Face

The tiny flea terrier owned by Kenneth Criswell, 762 Arlington avenue, likely think twice or maybe thrice before it ventures around a rabbit at the neighboring home of George H. Hicks, 764 Arlington, and displays its doggy threats so freely as it did last night.

At least neighbors out that way judge so. They were shown that rough rabbits don't like insults—

Brave as a dog many times his size, the one-and-a-half-pound doggie turned in the rabbit's direction last night as the bunny was taking a nap under a shady bush. He went snooping right into the rabbit's rippling hind legs.

"The rabbit and dog eyed each other and then the rabbit gave a snort," one neighbor said in describing it. "Then the rabbit turned on the gas. The rabbit chased the poor terrier all over the place and the dog was lucky to escape without more bruises."

"You can't picture in words the show a rabbit chasing a dog provides," another said. "You don't see it often."

Needless to say, the small dog wasn't out parading any challenges before the rabbit today.

New Deal Plan Bitterly Scored

Detroit Economist Says One Industry Would Beat New Deal If Left Alone

(International News Service)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 2.—The new deal was bitterly criticized for its administrative and economic planning policies at University of Virginia's institute of public affairs.

Dr. Arthur J. Hettinger, Jr., Detroit economist charged the administration's recovery policies lack financial balance and are run by irresponsible and disorderly methods. He declared that one industry, if left alone, could have put more men to work than have been employed by the two year public works program.

Clarence King, New York social worker, told a round table group, that national planning for the relief of the unemployed is faulty and that local relief organizations are weak.

ROLL CALL VOTE TAKEN ON UTILITY BILL IN HOUSE

systems under direction of the securities and exchange commission.

Blanton Tries Trick
Prior to voting on substitution the House rejected a motion by Rep. Blanton (D) Texas, to kill the entire bill by a vote of 82 to 1.

Rep. Eagle (D) Texas was the sole supporter of Blanton's motion. Blanton failed to support his own motion, having used it as a parliamentary trick to obtain the floor to make a speech.

As the House approached its final votes, Rep. Rayburn (D) Texas, chairman of the House interstate commerce committee, created a stir by announcing that he would support the House bill over the Senate measure.

He had fought for the "death sentence" provisions of the Senate bill in behalf of the White House, but said that other provisions of the House bill were so much better than the Senate measure that he wanted a Senate-House conference.

Rep. Rankin (D) Mississippi, who went to the White House late yesterday, appealed to members to substitute the whole Senate bill for the House bill, and thus send the measure to the White House for approval.

Bill Is Passed

Washington, July 2.—Climaxing a bitter five months battle between President Roosevelt and power interests, the House today passed the controversial utility holding company bill.

Before voting its approval, the House three times rejected administration moves to incorporate the drastic holding company death sentence in the measure.

The holding company ban, approved by the Senate, had been eliminated by the House Interstate Commerce committee.

As passed, the bill calls for simplification of giant holding company structures into integrated utility systems if the securities and exchange commission finds such action is in the public interest.

and forced a compromise on pay scales.

The senate has modified the AAA amendments and the administration banking bill in committees, while revision of the Guffey-Snyder Coal bill was forecast in the House Ways and Means committee. The NRA was emasculated by the senate before the supreme court decision.

Vote On One Issue

Asked whether the house vote on the utility issue indicated a revolt, Speaker Byrns replied sharply: "No, that vote was on just one issue."

But Rep. Snell of New York, Republican leader, said: "One of the best indications that members are thinking for themselves is that a majority of Democrats did not do as they were told."

"I have never seen anything like the pressure used by the White House in all my years here. They used federal judgeships, post offices, public works jobs to influence votes. Their men were right here in the capital. What right had Charles West, the president's man, to lobby here?"

Threaten Democrats
"They sent Emil Hurja of the Democratic National Committee, Secretary to the President McKintyre, and Thomas Corcoran and others maintained a room where they threatened Democrats in and out of the house."

It was disclosed that a house leaders' poll three weeks ago showed but 127 Democrats for the "Death Sentence." Since several Republicans, Farmer-Laborites and Progressives were in the total of 146 for the "Death Sentence," it was evident that while House pressure had changed but few Democratic votes.

House elimination of the "Death Sentence" clause may make the measure a campaign issue, said Senator Wheeler (D) of Montana. He believes the senate conferees will restore the clause, but indicated this action might kill further consideration this session.

Second Vote To Be Taken

Washington, July 2.—A second vote on the holding company "Death Sentence" was scheduled in the house today as the administration's utility bill came up for final passage.

Although President Roosevelt's demand for dissolution of large utility systems was rejected overwhelmingly yesterday, administration supporters will ask approval of the senate bill which contains the drastic holding company ban.

Efforts to reinstate the "Death Sentence" in the house bill, after its elimination by the Interstate Commerce committee, were frustrated by a teller vote of 216 to 146.

Foes of private power interests expressed confidence the senate measure will be passed in place of the moderate house bill which calls for simplification of holding company structures instead of dissolution.

Arrest Young Man On Fireworks Charge

City Ordinance Prohibits Display, Sale And Discharge Of Fireworks Here

City police last night arrested a young man for exploding fireworks in the city. After spending a night in jail he was discharged by Mayor Charles B. Mayne in police court today.

Two or more years ago council passed an ordinance prohibiting the display, sale and discharge of fireworks in the city.

During the winter an effort to repeal the ordinance in favor of "regulated" fireworks failed.

Some weeks ago the chief of police announced the ban against fireworks and each night police are called to some section by explosion of firecrackers.

Sunday three persons were arrested and held in jail over night and released Monday, hence the arrest, detention and discharge of another last night.

The measure banning fireworks was adopted by council they stated at that time on account of the probabilities of getting lockjaw if accident occurred.

ADMIT AATORNEY SHOT AND KILLED DURING HOLD-UP

the Jackson sisters discussed the murder; how one of the girls suggested first that Dickinson be merely "knocked on the head," and how he vetoed this suggestion and decided to kill Dickinson "so he wouldn't talk when he came to."

Girl Reveals Story
Schweitzer's confession followed a similar story by Jean Miller. It was corroborated by the Jackson sisters, who admitted sitting in a hotel room with Schweitzer and deliberately planning to kill the attorney.

The Jackson girls, however, said Jean did not know that Dickinson's death had been decided upon. She thought he was merely to be "rolled."

Schweitzer's confession, according to McGree, told how he and the Jackson sisters met the attorney in a downtown hotel last Tuesday night. The girls "gave him the eye" and Dickinson came over to the table and offered to buy a drink, Schweitzer said.

"Dickinson had been flashing a lot of dough and we figured we could shake him out," McGree quoted Schweitzer as saying. "One of the girls suggested that we just knock him on the head, but I said that would be too dangerous; he would talk when he came to. We decided to use the gun."

Meet Dickinson

In accordance with a prearranged plan, the Jackson girls and Schweitzer met Dickinson Wednesday night. Jean Miller joined the group and was told that Dickinson was to be "rolled."

The quartet spent most of Wednesday evening drinking in Schweitzer's hotel room, according to the confessions, Dickinson quoting poetry for the amusement of the girls and drinking whiskey out of Loretta's size two slipper. Late in the evening they set out in Schweitzer's car on the drive that ended in the attorney's death.

According to the plan, one of the girls asked Schweitzer to stop the car in Rouge Park.

"Two of the girls got out of the car," Schweitzer said, according to McGree, "and the other one stayed in the car. I ordered Dickinson to

Taxes Dangerous To Tinker With

Administration Learns That Some Taxes Can Do More Harm Than Good

SHARE THE WEALTH PROGRAM IS DENIED

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
Washington Bureau
1900 S street

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The late Henry T. Rainey, speaker of the U. S. house of representatives, was one of the ablest authorities in the country on the subject of taxation. Taxes can be so levied, he repeatedly told me, as to accomplish almost any desired end.

For example, there once was a terrible disease, known as "phossy jaw," which afflicted workers engaged in the manufacture of old-fashioned matches, but it was the only way matches could be made, the manufacturers said. "Well, we laid a prohibitive tax on that kind of matches," related the speaker. "and they soon hit on a harmless formula. We cured 'phossy jaw' by taxation."

INJURIOUS TAXES

However, Speaker Rainey emphasized the point that unskillfully or recklessly legislated imposts are likely to be as injurious as judicious ones may be beneficial—just, he explained, as a medicine, which is salvation in one case, may be poison, or, at best, no good whatever, in some other case.

Now, President Roosevelt's "share our wealth" prescription is one which appears to have been suggested without much consideration as to its ultimate effect on the patient. It is a prescription which, in fact, seems not to have been proposed so much to cure the nation's economic illness as to win folk away from the rival remedy (if so) urged by Senator Huey P. Long. This the Kingfish-physician was prompt to recognize, and his nerve being excellent, he was equally prompt to challenge the White House doctor to try it, promising to be the first to acclaim its efficacy—IP it proved efficacious. But he strongly hinted at what many persons believed to be a pretty reasonable suspicion that the White House was in no haste to have its prescription actually tried, but simply was trying to hush HIM up.

A LARGE ORDER

Thereupon administrationists were compelled to show that they really DID mean business.

Accordingly the news was broadcast that the administration wanted action within a week. Adopting a "share our wealth" program in less than a week decidedly was a large order. It was so large, indeed, that congress balked at it—especially considering that it was of doubtful constitutionality.

In short, it presently became evident that it was questionable whether it could be put through.

CONFUSION

The executive mansion had to qualify.

In the midst of the critical week, as the zero hour was approaching, the president, at one of his "press conferences," raised the question:

How did the idea get abroad that he insisted on "share our wealth" action so urgently? He never had said so, he stated; who had presumed to quote him? And, to be sure, he never HAD said so.

A voice was raised among the correspondents:

Senator Pat Harrison said so.

Inasmuch as Senator Harrison is one of the foremost spokesmen of the administration in the upper congressional chamber, it probably was fair to regard him as a competent authority.

However, "Are you dead sure of that?" the president inquired. The correspondents were "dead sure".

Still, it isn't good form to dispute the president.

NOT SAFE TO TINKER WITH

Senator Pat Harrison, then, and Senator Joseph T. Robinson (administration leader in the upper house), Vice President John N. Garner and others of the inner administrative council, are placed in the position of having been mistaken, when they assumed that President Roosevelt sought immediate "share the wealth" action.

Of course—but—! Moral:

Taxation is not safe to tinker with lightly—and neither is it safe to try to out-manuever Senator Huey P. Long politically.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. July 1, seven arrests on charges as follows: Drunkenness 3, drunkenness and disorderly conduct 3 and violation of parking 1.

Pennsylvania Association of Planning commissioners in convention recently at Harrisburg passed a resolution of appreciation for the work of the late City Engineer G. Harry Hoskins, which they sent to his widow here. It said that the delegates who attended the convention at New Castle all remember the genial and courteous treatment they received and attributed much of it to the efforts of Mr. Hoskins and in appreciation of his kindness they sent to Mrs. Hoskins a resolution as follows: "Resolved, that the Pennsylvania Association of Planning commissioners record with deep regret the death of G. Harry Hoskins of New Castle; that the association believes the cause of planning in this state has lost much with his passing." The resolution was signed by Arthur A. Cassell, secretary, Bethlehem, Pa.

Matthew Gunton, who served for five years as vice president, and two years as president of the State Planners, refused to stand for reelection at the Harrisburg convention of Planning commissioners and has received from the body a letter in which the association said it wished to express its great appreciation for his services during the past seven years.

A criminal's name means nothing to police authorities nowadays but his fingerprints do, according to Acting Chief of Police McMullen, who reported today that each mail brings fingerprints of persons arrested in various sections for various actions. They come from the department of justice. He pointed out several received yesterday which showed that Hyman Kattoff, who stole a straw hat from a local store in 1934 has been arrested for grand larceny in New York; that Clayton Smith, arrested here in 1934, was taken into custody at Cleveland on a narcotics charge and that Thomas Otto, arrested here on a charge of drunkenness and fighting and carrying a pipe wrapped in paper, was also taken into custody at Cleveland on a narcotics charge. James Costello, who was regarded with suspicion and arrested here in 1934, was taken into custody at Pittsburgh for begging.

While enroute home from Conneaut Lake, Councilman Albert Hoyland saw something crawling alongside of the highway. He stopped and got out of his car and found a large snapping turtle. He brought it to New Castle and gave it to Harry Horner and no doubt Harry has had his turtle soup by this time.

Radical Changes In European Alignments May Affect Cabinet

(International News Service)

LONDON, July 2.—Radical change in European alignments resulting from the Anglo-German naval treaty and Italy's designs on Abyssinia caused grave concern in official British quarters today. Where talk was already heard of possible changes in Premier Stanley Baldwin's month-old cabinet.

On top of Premier Baldwin's flat rejection of Britain's compromise plan on Abyssinia, it was learned that France, piqued over the German naval pact, has warned Britain not to expect French cooperation in any move against Italy at Geneva.

The cabinet will take up the situation tomorrow.

Premier Laval of France has informed Britain, through young Capt. Anthony Eden, that France will consent to an Italian protectorate over Abyssinia.

Mussolini had previously communicated to Laval that Italy sought the protectorate by peaceful means, if possible, but if war in October is inevitable, "event the name of Abyssinia would disappear."

Rome, July 2.—Warlike scenes were witnessed in a dozen towns today as Premier Mussolini, speeding up preparations for his Abyssinian campaign, called out more than 150,000 blackshirt troops to train for the conquest.

Cheering crowds lined the streets as the militiamen marched off to entrain for Salerno, for a 50-day preparatory period.

Taxi drivers of Kobe, Japan, are to have uniforms.

Glass Falls From Truck; Not Broken

Unusual Accident Last Night At Delaware And Park Avenues

They didn't learn who he was or where he was from, but all of them agreed he was lucky.

"Lucky" was the driver of the truck from which an expensive plate glass cargo toppled as it rounded the curve at Park and Delaware avenues around 10:30 o'clock last night—toppled and didn't break!

The crowd attracted to the corner where it took place thought there had been an auto crash, but the crowd stayed mostly because it wanted to see if any of the 350 separate pieces of plate glass had cracked. The 350 pieces, crated tight together, in a huge box, were carefully taken out and not one had been damaged by the shock.

One spectator said he thought the truck was from Bellaire, O., but no one seemed to know.

The box fell from the truck when the side posts gave way as the truck turned up Delaware from Park. Two of three other boxes of the same size remained on the truck.

Report Triplets In Unemployed Miner's Family

Three Boys Born In Family At Youngstown, Pa., This Morning

(International News Service)

YOUNGSTOWN, Pa., July 2.—"Gosh, triplets! And all boys!" Charles Danner, 35, unemployed miner, rubbed his eyes in astonished wonder today.

His wife, Hoyle, 32, smiled wanly. "Charles" forgot all about the relief through which he has been feeding their other five children for the past year, clasped his wife's pale hand, turned to the attending physician, Dr. Joseph F. Lechman, Latrobe, and beamed:

"They're perfectly fine, Doc! I'm not exactly in need now—you can't tell, though, how things'll turn out." Dr. Lechman announced the total weight of the triplets as 15-1-4 pounds.

The triplets, all of the same sex, which Dr. Lechman explained occurs only once in every 6,400 cases, enjoyed their first glimpse of the world in one of the five modestly furnished rooms in the old Washington hotel where the Danners and another family have lived since the depression wiped out their income.

Excitement of the occasion gripped Danner after reassurances his wife and the triplets were doing well.

Sarah, one of the other five children, was seven years old today. There are two other girls and two boys.

Soviet Protest To Be Rejected

Japan Will Disapprove Soviet Methods In Communication

STRONG PROTEST MADE BY RUSSIA

(International News Service)
TOKIO, July 2.—Quick and scornful rejection, accompanied by an expression of Japanese "disaffection" with Soviet methods, will be the lot of Russia's latest protest to Tokyo over alleged Siberian frontier violations, authorities close to the foreign office predicted today.

Military leaders, who have a great deal to say in directing foreign affairs, support the foreign office in this stand, it was understood.

Incursions by Manchukuan river craft, some of which were armed, were charged in a strong note delivered to Foreign Minister Koki Hiroto today by Ambassador Konstantin Yurenev, acting under orders from Moscow. The Soviet union expects the Japanese government to assume responsibility for the acts of Japanese and Manchukuan authorities, said the protest.

Moscow, July 2.—Placing full responsibility upon Japanese shoulders for alleged "intrusions" of Manchukuan gunboats in Siberian waters, Ambassador Yurenev today handed a strong protest to Foreign Minister Koki Hiroto in Tokyo.

The Soviets said: "The Japanese government is responsible for the conduct of Japanese Manchukuan officials."

The Soviet protest, coming after a comparatively short period of Russo-Japanese friendship, indicated renewal of tension in the Far East.

Relief Strikers And Canadian Police In Clash

(International News Service)
REGINA, Sask., July 2.—The first serious clash between police and striking relief camp workers and their sympathizers was brought to a virtual end today with one city constable dead, one striker dying, more than 50 injured and at least 26 strikers under arrest.

The victim was Charles Miller, who was beaten to death by a group of strikers using pieces of iron sticks and blocks of wood, according to authorities.

The battle began when Royal Canadian mounted police and city officers broke up an outdoor meeting held by the strikers and their sympathizers. About 3,000 persons participated. The strikers were massed here for a proposed march on Ottawa to present their demands to the government.

KENNEBUNKPORT, Me., July 2.—Libby Holman today saw her star rising as a dramatic actress as well as torch singer.

Before an audience composed of socialites at the Ogunquit summer theatre she won applause last night when she appeared in the star role in "Accent on Youth." She was a bit nervous at first but was soon master of the situation.

After the show she took occasion to deny a report broadcast yesterday that her two-year-old son Christopher Reynolds, heir to a large part of the Reynolds tobacco fortune was guarded or that she or the baby had received kidnap threats.

Mexican Policies Not To Be Changed

Politicians Are Surprised By Announcement From President Cardenas

(International News Service)
MEXICO CITY, July 2.—President Lazaro Cardenas surprised politicians today with a brief announcement that he was standing pat on his socialistic education, labor and agrarian policies.

Modification of these programs had been confidently expected.

His amnesty decree, permitting the return of high prelates and others exiled because of their opposition to the government's church policies, has been drawn up, but its promulgation is being temporarily held up, it was learned.

President Cardenas, in his policy statement, approved enforcement of article III of the constitution, providing for socialistic education, "a rhythm of increased intensity," and distribution and continuation of his labor plans without change.

Amelioration of his religious policy was still looked for, although his statement contained no announcement on this point.

Efforts of President Cardenas to restore political tranquility to the country after the retirement of General Plutarco Elias Calles have so far not been entirely successful.

Retiring Janitor Honored By Party

All Janitors Of City Schools Join In Tribute To Harry Jones Last Night

Harry Jones, janitor of Terrace avenue school, who is retiring after many years of service, was given a fitting tribute at the school janitors of the city Monday night.

The janitors gathered in the Benjamin Franklin junior high school, about 40 in number, had a program and a bountiful dinner, with Mr. Jones as the guest of honor.

Music, led by Bert Sanford, and with various others taking part, and speeches, including one by S. G. Ligo, superintendent of buildings and grounds for the New Castle school district, formed the nucleus of the program.

Mr. Jones was presented with a lounge chair from his friends and co-workers, Joseph Patterson making the presentation speech. The pleased recipient responded in a gracious manner when accepting the gift, thanking all of them for their thoughtfulness.

The table where dinner was served was prettily appointed with roses and other garden flowers. There were five or six large cakes with the name of the retiring janitor on the top.

Much of the success of the evening goes to the committee comprised of Frew Book, L. C. Hogue, William Kocher, John Kenehan and R. W. Garroway.

LARK REFUSES TO LEAVE PRISONER WHO BEFRIENDED HIM

(International News Service)
JOLIET, Ill., July 2.—To the population of Stateville penitentiary, officials today were forced to add one more inmate who simply won't leave.

He is known only as "Squidgits," a lark, and pet of John Post, long-term prisoner. Post picked Squidgits up with a broken wing eleven months ago and carefully nursed it back to health.

Post knows the value of liberty and let it free. But Squidgits circled around a couple of time and then came back to perch on Post's shoulder, from which it would not budge.

Wild Snake Stories Have Village Upset

GROVE CITY, July 2.—The little community of Briscoe Springs, just north of the Grove City borough limits has been literally watching its step for several weeks, as rumors of a scourge of copperhead snakes in the vicinity were circulated. When it was reported that a den of the poisonous reptiles had been found and 15 snakes killed, after two valuable cows had died of snake-bite, an investigation was launched to verify the stories. It now appears that the community has nothing to worry about.

The 15 dead snakes were found to be harmless, and the two dead cows were merely suffering from an infected jaw, in no way traceable to snake-bite. It is believed that the rumors started after a trout fisherman turned from his casting to see a snake nearby. He snapped its head off with his casting rod, and it proved to be a copperhead. Investigators found this to be the only authentic copperhead story in the scores of wild tales that had kept women and children out of the gardens and fields.

A crowd of about 100 eager Girl Scouts invaded Cascade park this morning to begin their month of "day camping." The camp opened at 9 o'clock with a Girl Scout "sing" conducted by Miss Elizabeth Reis, and announcements by Audrielle Lynch. By 10 o'clock all registrations had been completed and each unit had been organized. From this point the regular daily program was followed:

Deficiency Judgment Act Is Extended

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 2.—Governor George H. Earle today signed the Shaprio bill extending for another two years the deficiency judgment act which limits the amount of the claim of a mortgage holder against a property owner to the actual loss in a foreclosure sale.

The original act, which expired yesterday, was passed two years ago. It amended the previous law which permitted a deficiency claim for the full amount of the mortgage in a foreclosure sale.

Under the Shaprio act, a person holding a $5,000 mortgage who forecloses, buys in the property himself and then sells it to a third party for $4500, can claim a deficiency judgment of only $500 against the mortgagee.

The act affects all foreclosures during the next two years.

Graham Returns From Middle West

Says Floods Have Eliminated Parched Conditions Of Past Few Years

(International News Service)

Returning from Omaha, Neb., where he attended the annual convention of the American College Publicity Association, Prof. R. K. Graham of New Wilmington today had some interesting things to say with reference to weather conditions in the Middle West.

After pointing out the fact that he had heard much of dust storms and drought which had affected the section last year, Graham was surprised to find that recent rains in Council Bluffs had caused rivers to overflow and streets to be flooded.

"They'll have to change the song in Iowa from 'Iowa, Iowa, That's Where the Tall Corn Grows,' to 'That's Where the Tall Corn Grew,'" said Graham. According to self-styled authorities on the Pullman, the corn is usually knee high by July, while most of the Iowa corn is now barely above the water which covers most of the farming country.

One farmer on the train, Graham said, claims that the rains have practically killed off the chinch-bugs which during the dry weather last year destroyed much of the corn. But it takes hot weather, the farmer explained, to make the corn grow tall.

Despite heavy rains, the weather was uncomfortably hot, Graham reports, but air-conditioned cars on the various roads made travelers cool and comfortable.

 WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—The decline of nearly 20 per cent in the spring pig crop for the nation generally isn't reflected in Pennsylvania, according to figures released by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.
 Pigs saved in the Keystone state out of the spring crop this year number 255,000. This is a decline of only one per cent below the 1934 level, as contrasted with the shrinkage of 19.6 per cent in the country as a whole. The 1935 Pennsylvania crop of 255,000, however, compared unfavorably with crops of 340,000 in 1933 and 326,000 in 1932.

WHO PAYS THE TAXES

Editor News:—Among the president's several suggestions for "sucking the rich" is a tax corporation earnings. This appeals strongly to public sentiment. As a matter of fact, it is impossible to tax a corporation in any way.

The best that can be accomplished is either to tax the consumer, or the stockholders. A moment's consideration will make this clear.

A corporation is purely an artificial body organized for the purpose of holding the legal title of property owned by the stockholders. It can neither pay taxes, nor make a profit.

Take for example the American Telephone and the Pennsylvania Railroad companies. Over 50 per cent of the stock in these two companies are said to be owned by widows and orphans, and those who from age, or other causes, have no earning power. Mr. Roosevelt has just denounced the representatives of these stockholders as a pernicious lobby.

If these corporations are to earn dividends, any increase in the taxes must of necessity either come from the dividend of these stockholders or be secured through increased prices to the consumer.

Taxing corporations may be one means of raising necessary revenue, but to suggest that such a tax is paid by the corporation, or that it is a tax on the rich, is wholly false.

There were two very interesting articles published in The News of June 27. One in glaring headlines on the front page, the other a few lines in an obscure corner of the paper.

The first was an interview with the president, in which he denounced the owners of government bonds in asking for payment according to the terms of their contract with the government. The other was a statement that the government had decided to pay the holders of Panama bonds in gold, or its equivalent.

The contract in the Liberty bonds and the Panama bonds is exactly the same, yet the holders of the Liberty bonds are denounced as unconscionable plutocrats, and the holders of the Panama bonds are to be paid in gold, or its equivalent. During the war the purchasers of the bonds were lauded as patriotic citizens, now they are denounced as plutocrats. It may well be said, "Consistency, thou art a jewel beyond price."

New Firm Takes Lawrence Auto

Lawrence Auto Sales Company Makes Purchase; King New Manager

LITTLE CHANGE IN FIRM'S PERSONNEL

Announcement of the purchase of the large plant of the Lawrence Automobile company, South Mercer and South streets, by the Lawrence Auto Sales company, was made public today by E. J. King, general manager of the purchasing corporation.

The firm will continue to handle the sales and service of the Buick, Pontiac, LaSalle and Cadillac cars.

"We are presenting ourselves as a new corporation," General Manager King announced, "but the personnel of the former company remains almost intact. There will be 32 associates in the new concern."

Mr. King came here from Pittsburgh to head the organization. He has already launched a program of minor improvements in the physical equipment of the plant.

"We want the public to know," Mr. King continued, "that this is a New Castle organization throughout. We will work for this district in everything undertaken."

The home of the Lawrence Auto Sales company is probably the largest of its kind in this section and its capable service department is an outstanding part of its service.

Old friends of the concern will be welcomed back at any time, Mr. King declared, because "we're handling the General Motors cars here and we hope to meet old friends and make new ones."

The complete personnel of the new organization is carried in an ad in this issue of The News.

See Tourist Boom In U.S. This Summer

Millions of Americans from all parts of the country are now planning to "go places and do things" in the greatest tourist boom since the balmy days of 1929, advance reports to government bureau indicate.

All records for vacation travel by boat, railroad, bus, plane, or in the family automobile are expected to be broken. Reports of travel compiled from records by railroad, bus lines, and various summer resorts show increased business already.

Commerce Department officials declare the great travel boom indicates better times, that fear as to the future is disappearing and confidence returning.

A flood of millions of dollars is expected to be released by the travelers. This money will be spent and respend in the United States rather than abroad. While foreign travel also is showing an increase, the dollar abroad is not what it used to be, and the great bulk of the travel money will be used in "seeing America first."

Inquiries as to national parks and trails at government offices bear out belief that folks this year will do their vacationing in their native land. Most of the park trails are now in excellent condition, due to CCC road work.

Gloria Vanderbilt Is Well Guarded

Child Plays On Mother's Big Estate Under Heavy Guard, Detectives Alert

(International News Service) SMITHTOWN, L. I., N. Y., July 2.—Little Gloria Laura Morgan

Vanderbilt, the central figure in the celebrated Whitney-Vanderbilt custody case, played on the grounds of her mother's estate near here today, safely guarded against any attempts at kidnapping.

The 11-year-old girl, who will spend the month of July with her mother, Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, was never out of sight of two private detectives, who strolled about the grounds with ammunition belts and huge revolvers about their waists in plain sight.

The men revealed that several machine-guns were placed at various vantage points around the estate. A small, high-powered boat, with guns mounted fore and aft, guarded the small beach on a Long Island Sound inlet behind the house.

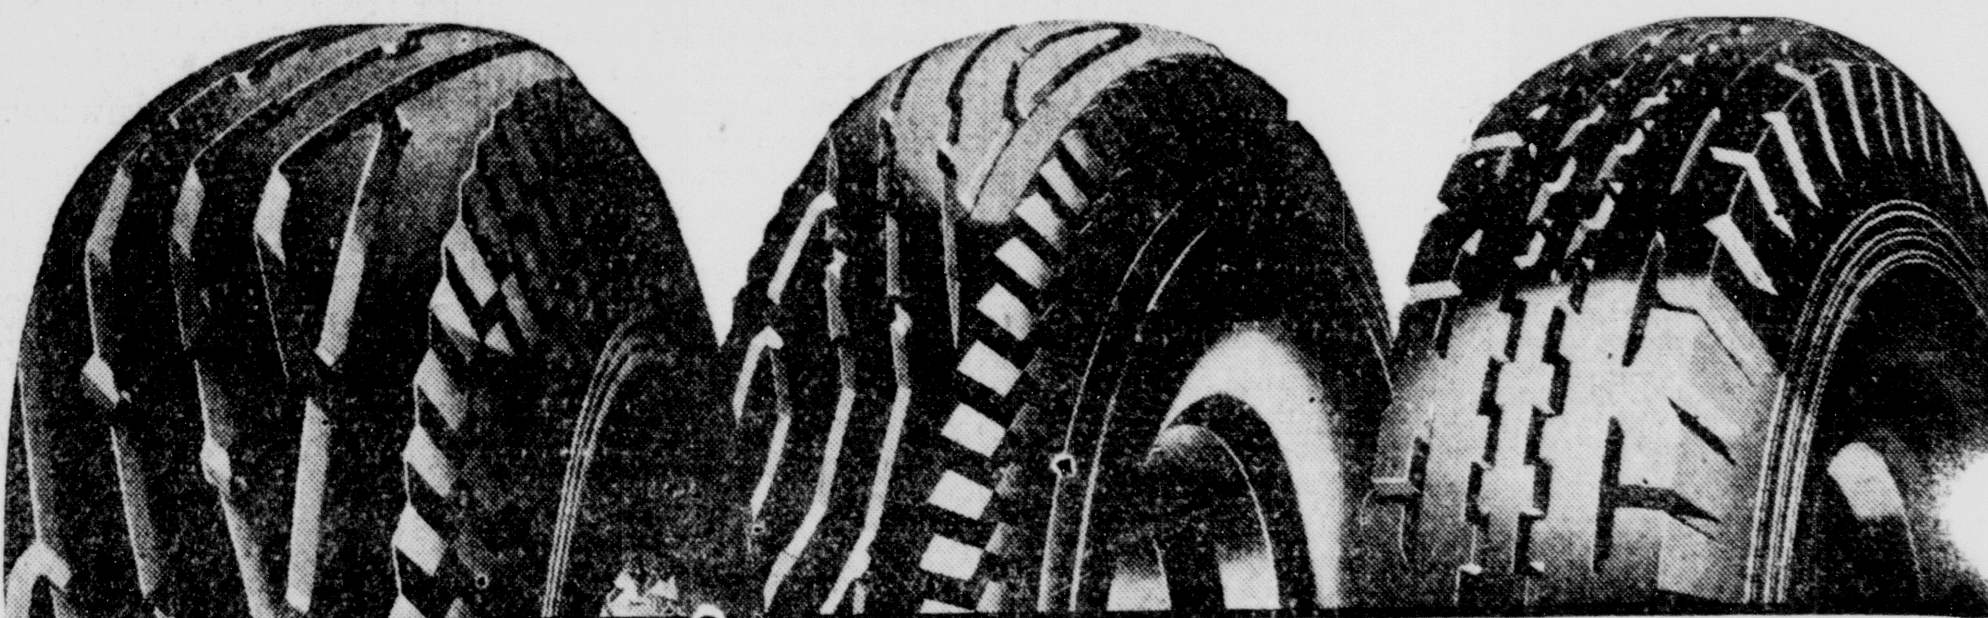

Gloria will be returned to her paternal aunt, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, on August 1, with no week-end visits to her mother until the opening of the school term in Roslyn, L. I.

BROTHERS BREAK AIR FLIGHT RECORD

Plane In Air For 653 Hours

Mississippi Brothers End Endurance Flight With New Record

REMAIN IN AIR FOR 27 DAYS

(International News Service)

MERIDIAN, Miss., July 2.—Colonels Al and Fred Key slept undisturbed through sound sleep today as their little monoplane, the "Ole Miss," in which they shattered all unofficial and official world endurance records, rested at the Key airport.

Its motor silenced after a grueling ordeal which lasted 27 days, the little plane looked forlorn and ragged. The silver coat of paint which once made the trim little ship glisten with pride was streaked, and reeking of grimy oil and grease.

The two brothers, Al and Fred, who pushed the midge plane through rain and hail storms for 653 hours of continuous flight, stuck close to their hotel rooms though thousands waited to congratulate them.

Throughout the night the two brothers slept for a few hours and were then aroused. This schedule was followed for fear prolonged sleep might have ill effects upon the two brothers who fought and battled against fatigue to endurance records far in excess of all previous marks.

Bring Plane Down
Their flight to new endurance laurels ended in a blaze of glory for the two Mississippi youths when late yesterday (at 6:05 p. m. CST) they brought their plane to a perfect three point landing.

As one, the 15,000 persons, who filled the airport almost beyond its capacity, gave one long and lusty cheer as the "Ole Miss" came to earth. A bare two minutes earlier, as Al, who was at the controls, jockeyed the plane into position to land, they had gasped in apprehension for the two because of a flat tire on the landing gear. But Al dipped the monoplane's nose and came in, steady and to a perfect landing.

It was the end of a glorious flight.

TWO ARE DROWNED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 2.—Hurtled into the Allegheny river at Herts Island when their borrowed boat capsized, two youths were dead today, while a third companion was alive through the efforts of a laborer who answered their cries for help.

The dead were Charles Klein, 15, and Philip Sefranko, 14. Francis Bastyer, 16, floated to shore on a section of gate tossed to him by a nearby workman.

Lifeguards and rivermen who recovered the bodies took turns applying resuscitation efforts that proved futile.

Must Establish Price Of Milk

Milk Control Board Is Confronted With Vital Problem In State

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 2.—Establishment of a price satisfactory to both dealers and farmers—a problem that even might have tried the wisdom of Solomon—faced the state milk control board today.

Dealers asked a reduction of 18 cents a hundred weight in milk from the $2.48 now paid the farmer, and 10 instead of 9½ cents a quart paid them by the stores, while farmers demand a flat rate for all grades of milk.

Farmers claim the present set-up does not average them $2.48 because of the low rate they receive for milk used in ice cream, cottage cheese, butter and kindred products. Per hundred weight prices, in most instances, average $1.50, spokesmen at the hearing pointed out.

"Dealers in neighboring states of West Virginia and Ohio pay 28 to 35 cents a hundred weight less than Pittsburgh prices and retail at 11 cents a quart, giving local dealers a good incentive to buy from those states unless something is done here," R. G. Birmingham, representative of Pittsburgh Milk Dealers' Association, warned in summarizing the local dealers' feelings.

RETAINS FISHING HONORS

GROVE CITY, July 2.—Billy Allen, Jr., aged 10, who landed a 13-inch bass last year, 15 minutes after the season opened at midnight, retained his honors this year when he landed three fish above 12 inches within two hours after the season opened. He caught three other fish under the 12-inch limit established at the Country Club lake.

Prof. Carl Easter waited until 4 a. m. but landed a 13-inch fish on the first cast. Fred Dale captured two, 13 and 14 inches, respectively, and Roy Stephens landed the largest, a 15-inch fish.

Our Large Gold Pile.

A Grand Canyon

Theater?

Criminals Confess.

Did The Dog Know?

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE "GREATEST" COUNTRY

IN THE world, supposed to be the most intelligent, owns some tons of gold, called "worth" nine thousand million dollars.

We do not use this gold, or even invest part of it in adequate national defense, that would protect it. We are afraid someone may come, with better airplanes and submarines than ours, and steal it, so the government will dig a deep hole, far from the coast, put in a huge safe and hide away the gold lump, that is used only to impress the financial imagination of the world and keep foreigners from knocking down our currency.

THE MEXICAN RULERS, whom Spanish invaders tortured, murdered, robbed of their gold and baptized in the name of their Christian God, Montaigne writes, in his essay of coaches:

"Their gold was all a dead stock, being of no other use. But to ornament and ostentation, as so much furniture, reserved from father to son, by many powerful kings, who continually exhausted their mines, whereas our gold is all in circulation and traffic."

ANTHROPOLOGISTS SAY the typical American is taking on the facial characteristics of the red Indian. Certainly our government is taking on the financial characteristics of our ancient American predecessors.

There is a nation that makes no use of its gold, fears to lose it, in the very likely event of conquest by foreign enemies, lacks brains and enterprise to make the country safe against attack, arranges to bury its precious, useless gold in a safe hole, as Jehu's Khan ordered his corpse buried, secretly in the depth of a vast forest.

We fear inflation, so we inflate with interest bearing bonds that double the cost of inflation.

Intelligent men writing of this "little rollo" period in our history will begin each chapter, "You will find it hard to believe what follows."

THE HOUSE of Representatives approves a "national theater." France has long had her government owned or controlled comedie francaise, where Rachel, Bernhardt and others established their greatness, also her grand opera house, where Patti sang with Deszki.

Many German kings and princes have established national theaters, including the mad king of Bavaria.

A national theater for this country is a new idea, but a man from Nebraska, Congressman McLaughlin, had the idea, so it is born of no effete decadence. The plan is to encourage "the best plays, acted by the best actors, at a minimum cost," a difficult program.

THUS FAR the government is like the American in Paris who told his friend, "always my wife is asking me for more francs. Last Monday she asked me for twenty thousand francs, today she asks for fifty thousand francs."

"Great heaven," exclaimed the friend, "what does she do with all that money?" "I don't know," the husband answered. "I have not given her any yet."

The national theater is approved, but no money has been provided. If the government wanted to do something big, like planting a wind break forest 1,000 miles long, why not build a stage across one end of the Grand Canyon and let the 10,000,000 unemployed appear as a grand chorus in some Greek play, say the Bacchae, with Dionysus being chased over the red rocks by his mother.

THERE IS some comfort in the fact that criminals find it difficult to keep silence. In today's news, one man, W. L. Ferris, confesses the murder of Howard Carter Dickinson, relative of Chief Justice Hughes.

A 19-year-old brute, A. G. Volkman, confesses the murder, under horrible circumstances of a nine-year-old girl, daughter of the killer's clergyman.

The criminal's tendency to talk, even to brag of his crime, the skill of detectives in calling forth confessions, and the inability of the guilty man to act naturally, when detectives are watching, or to refrain from jumping when a hand is laid on his shoulder, helps justice.

Once the suspect was put on the rack or the thumbscrew, hot irons or painful "boot" were used to extort confessions. Those methods, once thought necessary, are obsolete, but still criminals are caught.

MR. WERNER KAHN, district leader of "Hitler Youth," says Nazi doctrines have become Germany's real religion, and "the time must come when entry into the Hitler youth organization will take the place now occupied by Catholic or Protestant confirmation."

Further, the young gentleman says, "I declare to all enemies of Hitler youth that the Fuehrer is our faith and national Socialism is our religion."

A DOG barked violently at two men. One was frightened; the other asked: "Don't you know that a barking dog never bites?" "Yes," said the frightened one, "I know it, and you know it, but does that dog know it?"

A serious question for the Hitler youth gentleman is this: Do the powers above know that entry into the Hitler youth movement is equivalent to religious confirmation? If not, prolonged heretofore trouble for Hitler youth perhaps.

FORMER PRESIDENT HOOVER has decided that he will not be a candidate for a second term in 1936, so this must be a cheerful day for President Roosevelt.

Everything in politics is uncertain. In 1891, for instance, Grover Cleveland, early in the political season, said, positively, that he would not be a candidate for a second time—and he was nominated.

We should remember that the jockey counts in every race. A cartoon, showing the 1936 race, with the solemn old-time Republican as Mahout on the elephant, and Santa Claus riding the Democratic donkey, spurring him on with a $4,880,000,000 fund, would incline you to bet on the donkey, if you bet.

State Will Send Big Delegation

Republicans Of Pennsylvania To Attend "Grass Roots" Parley In Cleveland

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 2.—Organizers of Pennsylvania's delegation to the Republican "grass roots" conference in Cleveland next week today asserted they hoped to include every faction of the state's G. O. P. in the caravan.

Looking toward this end, invitations have been extended, it was announced, to ex-Gov. Gifford Pinchot, former U. S. Senator Joseph R. Grundy and David A. Reed, former Attorney General William A. Schnader, Republican State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor, his predecessor, Gen. Edward Martin, John Y. Wills, president of the Young Republicans, and Charles W. Carroll, former Young Republican leader who split with Wills—each representing a different section of the party.

Formal announcement of the entire Pennsylvania delegation to consist of 25 delegates at large and 778 from the counties divided on the basis of population, will be made Friday from the Republican Crusader headquarters in Philadelphia.

They will go to Cleveland by special train, leaving Philadelphia Sunday morning and stopping at Coates-

GUARD HEIRESS AFTER THREATS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 2.—A 16-year-old heiress, Rosamond Farrell Murray, famous as a leading child rider, has been guarded by detectives for the past three weeks as a result of a kidnapping threat, it was revealed today.

Three weeks ago, detectives said, a telephone call was received by Miss Rosamond Murray, daughter of Daniel Harrington, superintendent of the estate of Miss Murray's father, Joseph B. Murray, at Water Mill, L. I.

A rough voice said: "You tell your dad to tell Murray to leave $25,000 on the Burnett tombstone in Wickatogue cemetery before Saturday night. If he doesn't we are going to get Rosamond."

JANITORIAL BRUSHES GIVE NEW APPEARANCE TO EXECUTIVES' ROOMS

Sparkling coats of paint were being applied today to offices and halls in the school district's Administration building on East street by a part of the janitorial force of the city schools. The work has been under way for several days and will probably be finished this week.

The paint is the first the building's interior has had in four years.

FHA Officials Praise Work In Local District

Are Well Pleased With Progress Being Made By
Lawrence Co. Office

CHANGES MADE IN INTEREST RATES

Fred Aiken, representative of the banking department of the western Pennsylvania district office, Walter H. Miller, field representative, and Frank Vilsack, personnel representative, were in New Castle on Monday afternoon, conferring with Marcus Feuchtwanger, Lawrence county administrator.

They were well pleased with the progress being made locally, particularly under Title Two, which embraces loans on new construction work under the Federal Housing act. A number of such loans were checked over and approved.

The department is very particular about this type of loan, as 80 per cent of it is insured by the government. Under a new order recently issued on loans for new construction, the complete plans, specifications and plat plans indicating the location of the property in duplicate, is required as a part of the application.

It was announced by Mr. Feuchtwanger that the mortgage rate of FHA loans has been reduced. Financial institutions are not permitted to charge more than five per cent on mortgages, and the insurance premium of all classes of mortgages has been reduced to one-half of one per cent of the original face value of the mortgage. Where a higher rate has been previously charged, a refund is made in the form of credits against the mortgage.

A maximum charge of one-half of 1 per cent only is allowed for servicing all classes of mortgage. This covers the cost of collections, payment of taxes, fire insurance, etc. The previous rates for these two services was one per cent.

Mr. Feuchtwanger states that many applications for loans are still being received on important loans as well as under Title Two for new construction.

When a Gibraltar-Malta cable broke 10 times in the same place recently and bushes and branches were found entangled in it, workers surmised that an underground river flowed into the sea 10 miles out from the coast of North Africa.

RACKETEER, WOMEN HELD IN SLAYING OF JUSTICE HUGHES' NEPHEW

LORETTA JACKSON

GENE MILLER

FLOSSIE JACKSON

WILLIAM SCHWEITZER

Slaying of Howard Carter Dickinson, nephew of Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes of the United States supreme court, was admitted by William Schweitzer, alias Ferris, hotel habitue and racketeer, according to Detroit police. Schweitzer, at right above, was arrested in Port Wayne, Ind., where three alleged "party girls", held as material witnesses, also were detained. The slaying climaxed a party that began in a Detroit hotel and ended in Rouge park, where the attorney's body was found. Detectives said they obtained statements from the three women pictured, left to right, Loretta Jackson, Gene Miller (also known as Lillian Winles) and Flossie Jackson. The widow and son of the attorney said, as they attended the funeral at Pleasant Valley, Conn., that he never had owned a revolver. The attorney had gone from New York to Detroit on business.

Place Wreath
Paris, July 2.—For the first time since the close of the World War, an official German delegation of war veterans placed a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier today.

The German group stood before the tomb in silence for 10 minutes using the Hitler salute. The delegation also saluted the flags of the former allied war nations.

The ceremony was kept a secret until the last minute for fear that it might cause demonstrations by communists or members of the Croix de Feu, French war veterans' organization.

Rescues Himself And Informs Police, Was Set Upon As He Drove Car

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 2.—Bound by bandits and tossed unconscious into the East river, Fred Stapf, Bronx butcher, was alive today to tell the story.

Stapf told police he was set upon by two men when his automobile was stopped by traffic lights last night and knocked unconscious. When he regained his senses he was floating in the East river with his feet tied. Only due to shallow water and the fact that he was only 20 feet from shore was he able to save himself, he said. Paddling to land, he untied his feet, then made his way to a nearby garage to notify police.

Negro Watchman "Passes" Out As Ghost Appears

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, N. Y., July 2.—Cornelius Reid, Negro night watchman in a Brooklyn coal yard today reiterated he is "absolutely fearless" — "of anything but ghosts." Early this morning a reconnoitering spook was active in the coal yard, and a few moments later a radio police car found Reid lying "apparently dead" on the sidewalk a few blocks from his post.

The Negro's sudden flight was caused by what he said was the arrival of Oscar Wilson, former night watchman whose death had occurred a week ago in the yard. When Wilson, according to the watchman, walked up to the window and plastered his hands against the glass, Reid ran out of the yard, and collapsed in the street.

Earlier in the evening Reid had reported "strange going-on" in the garage. The white-sheeted one, he then told police, had been "pounding tin."

McADOO CAN REST IN ARLINGTON AT CLOSE OF CAREER

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 2.—Senator William G. McAdoo of California is safe from the potter's field.

To prove it Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas today sent his colleagues an autographed copy of an act recently signed by President Roosevelt providing for burial in a national cemetery of all members of President Wilson's war-time cabinet. McAdoo was secretary of treasury under Wilson.

The Californian commented: "I have no interest in being buried in Arlington cemetery as suggested, but I am glad the members of the wartime cabinet have been so honored."

"We helped fight the war over here and I appreciate the honor. I'm also damn glad it saves me from potter's field."

Seven Billions Spent In Year

Government Deficit For Year Will Be About
$3,500,000,000

RECEIPTS SHOW
SOME INCREASE

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Uncle Sam wound up the 1935 fiscal year today with a deficit of about $3,500,000,000 as compared with $3,989,496,000 in 1934.

While final figures were not available it appeared that receipts would be over $3,790,000,000 and expenditures about $7,290,000,000.

With two days of the fiscal year to go, the figures on June 27 showed general expenditures were $3,703,000,000 against $3,660,000,000 the year before, and emergency expenditures $3,555,169,000 compared with $3,908,963,000.

Receipts Gain
Income tax collections through June 27 amounted to $1,098,176,000 over $811,281,000 last year, miscellaneous internal revenue, which included the liquor and tobacco taxes, amounted to about $1,650,000,000, a gain of $200,000,000.

Through June 27 the processing taxes on farm products were $520,931,000 against $351,987,000, while customs receipts totaled $340,869,000 over $311,097,000 a year ago.

the FERA headed the list with $1,250,796,000 over $333,358,000 in 1934.

Public Debt
The public debt at the end of the year was approximately $28,665,000,000, against $27,008,000,000 last year. The estimate for the end of the new fiscal year is $31,000,000,000. Receipts that exceeded the estimates while expenditures were less than had been anticipated, due chiefly to lower emergency outlays.

During the year, the treasury issued $13,066,000,000 in new securities against $13,519,700,000 for the year before and retired $11,453,600,000 as compared with $9,050,000,000 in 1934. Featuring the year's activities in the public debt the treasury wiped out $3,075,742,000 in the fourth liberty loan and $1,782,700,000 of the first liberty loan. About a billion three hundred million of the fourth liberty loan is yet outstanding. That block will be retired on or before October 15. The treasury issued more than $3,300,000,000 in long-term bonds and $4,678,000,000 in notes during the year.

"Pack your tank with extra miles"

says...THE ENGINEER IN EVERY GALLON

BOTH TYDOL AND TYDOL-ETHYL GASOLINES CONTAIN TOP-CYLINDER OIL

CAR OWNERS who buy Tydol Gasoline over the holiday will have just cause for celebration. They will discover that "the engineer in every gallon" represents the biggest improvement that has been made in gasoline in a long, long time... an improvement that means extra miles in your gas tank, extra power in your motor, extra money in your purse. For "the engineer" stands for the fact that Tydol is a lubricating gasoline. Blended into every gallon of this new-type motor fuel, is a super top-cylinder oil and an active carbon-solvent. This extra lubricant does plenty to make your motor run better. It keeps valves from sticking. It reduces carbon. It safeguards upper-cylinder walls and pistons from wearing heat and friction. In fact, it does as much to tune up your motor's performance as though there were "an engineer in every gallon." Stop at the Tydol pump and pack your tank with extra miles. Get this extra-duty motor fuel at no extra cost.

If you had any ideas for the name for Register and Recorder William R. Hanna's new Texas horned road you may have to change it. For the road is now two toads. Some time near noon Monday Mr. Hanna put the horned road into a box and took it down to show some friends. When he opened the box there was a brand new toad. The campaign for a name now goes into a duel. If you have any suggestions for the names of the toads, mother and daughter, send them to Mr. Hanna.

"We expect to be able to pay off all of the $103,000 worth of road bonds which fall due this month," said County Commissioner P. O. Elder today. "While we haven't that much money on hands today, we expect to have it before the month is over." The bonds are a part of the road bonds issued in 1920 for the building of new highways in Lawrence county. No bond issue ever floated in Lawrence county got more returns for the money than did that million dollars worth. Since then they have provided concrete arteries for heavy traffic through the county.

Forty-three instruments were recorded in the office of Register and Recorder William R. Hanna in the week just past. These included deeds, mortgages and other transfers.

In an answer to a rule to show cause why an execution should not be stayed, Rebecca M. Smith states in her answer to the Lawrence county court that the property of Mary French is not worth the $5,000 against it, and that the appraisal of the Home Owners Loan Corporation was $3,400. The respondent asks that if the stay is granted it be not further than the end of July to see if the HOLC loan will be granted. Application for loan has been made before and refused, and a new application is pending.

Additional time was asked by viewers in the petition of Luigi Cardullo and his wife, Mario Franco Cardullo, in which they ask for damages to their property caused by the relocation and grading of a road near their home. The time was granted and the return date is the second Monday in September. A similar extension was granted for a view authorized in Neshannock township.

After a hearing before the court Benjamin H. Grinder and his wife, Mary M. Grinder, of West Pittsburgh, have had their names changed to Granger. They set out in their petition that they have been known by both names and have transacted business under the name of Granger and asked that this be their legal name. The change was granted.

Acting upon the report of viewers, a portion of route 37027, traffic route 117, in Scott township, has been vacated. The section vacated is 1024 feet long and was caused by a relocation of the road.

Dewey K. Smith of Washington, township is awarded $300 damages by viewers for damages to his property on the Volant-Leesburg road. The road was relocated, damaging the Smith property.

Viewers J. Roy Mercer, Alex Main and George M. Hettenbaugh have recommended the abandonment of a piece of road in Perry township which has become obsolete.

Viewers Homer C. Drake, Alex Main and George Hettenbaugh have recommended the vacating of a short section of road in Scott township on the Harlansburg-East Brook road, due to a relocation of the road.

When a mad bull broke away from a drove of cattle and charged down the main street of Warsaw, Poland's people fled in terror. A man in a taxi saw the animal approaching jumped out, took off his coat, and flicked it in the face of the beast as it passed. The man dodged. The performance was repeated until the animal became exhausted. Then two policemen lassoed it.

Fight Promoter Has 'Jitters'

Schmeling To Meet Paulino And King Levinsky Will Battle "Bomber" Louis

By HYPE IGEOE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 2.—There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip. Even Mike Jacobs knows that old wheeze and our Michael is rooting hard that the ancient and honorable copy-book line doesn't pop up to ensnare Max Schmeling next Sunday afternoon in Hamburg.

Sir Max is scheduled to fight Paulino Uzcudun and for no particular reason, thinks Mike. He says that Max isn't even sore at Paulie. So why fight?

Schmeling-Paulino Mike has sent Joe Jacobs to Germany with a pretty nice contract for Maxie to sign, calling for a little set to with Brown Bomber Joe Louis in September. That is a natural. Two great hitters and Jerry bring in the old green stuffer—for one of the other or maybe both. There have been double knockouts 'ere this.

To have Paulino slap Maxie around at this stage would be to hurt that gate and Mike doesn't want anybody going around bruising his 'il' million dollar gates! Who can blame him? Mike and Tex Rickard used to cook 'em up like that and, will you believe it, the pair of them were as mad as singed cats when the Chicago gate didn't hit three million!

Levinsky-Louis Now, on the other hand, there is the affair between Joe and King Levinsky in Chicago next month.

I'm going out to see that fight and I'm prepared now to report Joseph Brown Bomber on his pants at least once. The king is that dangerous. So, you see, old never-sleep Mike won't have any good reason to go to slumberland for several weeks to come. The old boy is off on his record-breaking stall walk. Has he got worries? Uh-huh.

Munty Golf Team

Plays Millcreek

Youngstown Golfers Will Be Here For Match With Locals Sunday Afternoon

New Castle's Municipal Golf team will have a tough match in store for them Sunday, when the Millcreek team from Youngstown will be here for a match with the locals on the Munty Course.

The eight low handicap players will comprise the team to meet the invading octet, and a close match is anticipated.

The Munty team has a strong combination this year and one which can give a good account of itself anywhere, in spite of the rather lopsided score they lost to Sharer on by on Sunday. These matches were closely contested and were decided by a very few strokes in each instance.

News Briefs From City Hall

Five persons were arrested yesterday, none of them on serious charges.

John Moore is acting as chief of detectives during the role of Willis McCullen as acting police chief. Detectives Cy Horner and Thomas Lynch are working on the 4 p. m. midnight turn.

Warren O. reported by Youngstown radio to the local station today that a black Ford V8, with Ohio license P258R was stolen from there Monday.

Exploding fireworks caused police to be sent to Leasure avenue last night. They also went to a point near St. Josephs church where firecrackers were touched off.

Apparently some motorists have forgotten the campaign against violators of auto laws here last fall. Reports of speeding on Highland Avenue have reached the city police station and arrests may be made.

Police have received reports that dogs bark during the day and night in Warren avenue and Boyles avenue. Whenever a report is received of such a case or of a howling dog, police act, as this is considered a nuisance.

A race track is opened near Amoy University in Amoy, China.

Plans will be completed tonight regarding a joint picnic with Oscar L. Jackson camp 249. Sons of Union Veterans, and other affiliated organizations.

Captain Partington also announces that reports from the convention recently held in Gettysburg will be given.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends neighbors and relatives for the kindness and sympathy extended us during the illness and death of our mother, Frances Amanda Bick, also for beautiful flowers and cars donated.

Stock Market Quiets Down
After Opening Flurry In Utility Groups

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer

NEW YORK, July 2.—The stock market quieted down today after an opening flurry in the utilities had pushed the group up from fractions to more than a point.

The early demand for the power and light shares represented an accumulation of overnight orders brought into the market by the news of the decisive defeat of the "death sentence" amendment to the holding company bill.

Favorites among the utility shares included Consolidated Gas, North American, Public Service of N. J., American Water Works, Electric Power and Light, National Power & Light, and Columbia Gas.

Other sections of the list were inclined to become somewhat irregular after the early spurt.

Rail shares turned easier after the first hour as Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, N. Y. Central and several other active favorites gave ground fractionally.

Industrials quieted down and early gains in U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Westinghouse and General Electric were cut down moderately.

American Can, though, was in consistent demand, rising a point.

International Nickel continued a heavy feature in the metal shares, declining fractionally on a large turnover. Silver and gold shares were neglected and drifted listlessly.

Oils also were inclined to be sluggish as Texas Corp. and Sococo Vanam were offered in fair volume to suffer small losses.

General Motors and Chrysler were quiet but steady.

Food, aviation, chemical, liquor and specialty shares marked time in light dealings.

Commodity markets were mixed with grains easier on profit-taking while cotton gained about 20 cents a bale.

Special Program
To Mark Fourth
In Ellwood City

Constitution Defense
League To Sponsor Observance Here On Thursday

Public Invited To Witness
Event; Hon. Louis Graham To Give Address

ELLWOOD CITY, July 2.—A novel form of celebration of the Fourth of July is being planned for the morning of the Fourth by the Constitution Defense League of Ellwood City.

In general, it is designated as the Call of The Patriots. All members of patriotic bodies, civic organizations, religious bodies, citizens, are asked to gather in their respective groups by 8:30 a. m. and to go from these respective gathering points to the Lincoln Auditorium to unite in a community patriotic service which will begin at 9:00 a. m.

The program for this celebration is in the last stages of preparation and will include the following: parade and numbers, Burgess J. C. Turner will be chairman of the meeting. The invocation will be given by the Rev. J. R. Routledge, Chaplain of the Legion Post and president of the Ministerial Association.

A chorus, under the direction of Robert Taylor and with Miss Irene Robinson accompanist, will sing. Miss Gertrude Jones, representing the Girl Scouts, will give a brief story of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence.

Paul Richards, representing the Boy Scouts, will give a few sentences from that immortal document and, likewise, the outline of the Constitution of the United States.

The address of the morning will be given by Hon. Louis Graham of Beaver, Pa. The complete program will be given tomorrow.

"The stirring times through which we are passing prompts such a meeting as a fitting celebration of the Fourth," said President Taylor of the league. It is in place that all patriots respond to this call and assemble at the appointed time and place and think through again the beginnings and the principles of this country which we proudly call our own. The meeting is planned to last for not more than one hour. This will give ample opportunity for other plans for the rest of the day.

Three Drowned In Atlantic As Storm Strikes

(International News Service)
SYNDER, N. S., July 2—Exhausted and grief-stricken, three young American society men today told low Robert R. Ames, 55, wealthy Boston realty broker and his two sons, Richard, 23, and Harry, 20, met death in the gale-lashed North Atlantic after the elder James was washed from the deck of his yacht, "Hamrah."

The survivors, Roger Weed, 23 and Sheldon Ware, 19, both of Boston, and Charles Tillinghast, 21, of Providence, R. I., said the Ames lads lost their lives in a vain attempt to rescue their father.

Ran Into Storm
Eleven days out of Newport bound for Bergen, Norway, and the Atlantic yacht competition and 600 miles off the Newfoundland coast, the yacht's company met tragedy during the height of a gale the morning of June 19.

Briefly, Weed told the story: "Mr. Ames was swept off the yacht as she lurched in a boiling trough. Richard went to his rescue after the yacht swung back but the line he was carrying fell from his grasp so we threw a life preserver to the elder Ames."

Three Drowned
"A small tender then was unlash and lowered by Harry who rowed to where they were. In the meantime our second jib broke and the raft jibs parted. While we worked to repair the damaged rigging the ketch was swept away from where they were. We managed to steer within 50 yards of them when the damaged boom wrecked the main rigging."

Rentz Tells Lions Of Life In Mexico

Club Today Hears His Review Of Trip To Rotary Sessions In June

The Mexican people, or many of them, were described as "silent sufferers" today by Fred L. Rentz, president of The News, as he reviewed before the Lions club members today his June trip to the convention of Rotary International at Mexico City. Rentz is also an honorary Lion.

"Poverty abounds," he said, "although the people don't complain much. They suffer in silence." Bloody bull fights, beautiful cathedrals, armies of police, Indian-brewed whiskey, novel Pullman City, Mexican money and other things, including the special train trip across the United States to the border, were touched upon in turn by Mr. Rentz as he spoke.

His vivid description of a bull fight was one of the most interesting topics.

"Believe you me, gentlemen," he quickly concluded after telling of his thrill with 15,000 others in a fight arena, "I haven't eaten chopped meat since."

Rentz, who has addressed the club many times before, was presented by Lion R. L. Boyd today.

President William D. Cobau installed last week, announced committees the new 1935-36 term.

Within a few days several members of the Lions club will leave for Lions International's convention in Mexico City and Mr. Rentz's talk was most appropriate for the occasion.

NEWEST LAKE IN U. S. BEGINS TO SPREAD OUT

(International News Service)
NORRIS, Tenn., July 1.—Water which will ultimately spread over an area measuring more than a thousand square miles, has begun formation of Norris Dam, impounding behind the incomplete $34,000,000 Norris Dam, one of the major power projects of the Tennessee Valley Authority.

A huge steel gate, weighing 15 tons, has been lowered across one of two remaining gaps in the concrete structure. A cableway carries the gate, which is 60 feet long and 11 feet wide, from one opening to the other, permitting concrete pouring behind the gate. A rubber hose encircles the edge of the giant water-stop, and is expanded by air pressure to form a watertight cushion to prevent seepage.

The dam is scheduled to be completed by January next year, and the lake will be filled to capacity by next May, it is estimated.
